

Tentative programme 26.9.2019

Northern Political Economy Symposium 2019

WHAT IS LEFT OF DEVELOPMENT IN THE ARCTIC?

14-15.11.2019 University of Lapland, main building

Thursday 14.11.2019 Eelin Sali

Chairperson: Monica Tennberg

9.00 Monica Tennberg, University of Lapland: Opening words

9.15-10.15 Reetta Toivanen, University of Helsinki: Whose development are we talking about?
European fantasies on the Arctic

10.15-10.30 Coffee break

10.30-11.00 Liubov Timonina, The Arctic Institute: Imagining and narrating development in the Arctic: Visual storytelling in times of Capitalocene

11.00-11.30 Timo Jokela & Maria Huhmarniemi, University of Lapland: Art and culture supporting renewable economies in the Arctic

11.30-12.00 Hannah Strauss-Mazzullo, University of Lapland: Sustainability as a practical problem

12.00-13.00 Lunch

Panel 1 Room SS04

Chairperson: Adrian Braun

13.00-13.30 Gerard Duhaime, Université Laval: Market inequalities and the reproduction of unsustainability in Nunavik

13.30-14.00 Panu Itkonen, University of Lapland: The economic sustainability of the Skolt Sami

14.00-14.30 Marjo Lindroth, University of Lapland: Greenland and the elusive better future: the affective merging of resources and independence

14.30-14.45 Coffee break

14.45-15.15 Jennifer L.L. Carroll, University of Alaska Fairbanks: Development dilemmas: Rural development students imagining a sustainable future in Alaska

15.15-15.45 Philippe Boucher, Concordia University: Sustainable development through the Inuit cooperative movement

15.45-16.15 Mathieu Boivin, University of Montréal: Quebec's "North Plan"- What's left for Northern indigenous communities? Can the North bring its riches back?

16.15- Concluding words

Panel 2 Meeting room, Faculty of Social Sciences

Chairperson: Hannah Strauss-Mazzullo

13.00-13.30 Olga Khlebosolova, Sergo Ordzhonikidze Russian State University for Geological Prospecting: Perspectives on Arctic sustainability programs: Student interview results

13.30-14.00 Edouard Galimullin, Russian Academy of National Economic and Public Administration: Snow, cold and polar bears: A study of Russian youth attitudes towards life and work in the Arctic

14.00-14.30 Joonas Vola, University of Lapland: 'Person substitute'. Public art in performing political economy and socio-cultural sustainability in the Arctic

14.30-14.45 Coffee break

14.45-15.15 Heidi Sinevaara-Niskanen, University of Lapland: When gender matters: Equality as a source of Arctic sustainability?

15.15-15.45 Emily Höckert, Outi Kugabi & Monika Lüthje, University of Lapland: Hosts and guests in participatory development

15.45-16.15 Monica Tennberg, University of Lapland: Arctic, urban and international? The case of Rovaniemi

16.15- Concluding words

19.00 Dinner, place to be confirmed

Friday 15.11.2019 Eelin sali

Chairperson: Hanna Lempinen

9.15-9.45 Daria Burnasheva, Arctic State Institute of Culture and Arts: Arctic identity: between frontier and homeland

9.45-10.15 Susanna Pirnes, University of Lapland: The idea of space in the context of Russian Arctic

10.15-10.30 Coffee break

10.30-11.00 Aaron Cooper, Coventry University: Frozen or Fluid? Exploring Arctic Environment protection in the context of geopolitical competition.

11.00-11.30 Daria Kolesnikova, National Research University, Higher School of Economics: Arctic region: how to make it worth

11.30-12.00 Olga Noschenko, National Research University, Higher School of Economics: High North regions' economic resilience: case-study of Yamalo-Nenets Autonomous District

12.00-13.00 Lunch break

Chairperson: Heidi Sinevaara-Niskanen

13.00-13.30 Braun Adrian, University of Lapland/University of Eastern Finland: The relevance of corporate social responsibility (CSR) and social license to operate (SLO) in Barents region mining

13.30-14.00 Francesco Durante, University of Helsinki: The governance of natural resource extraction and its contribution to the sustainable development of the Russian Arctic Zone: a case study of the Yamalo–Nenets autonomous okrug

14.00-14.30 Concluding discussion